Area of Expertise (100 words)
I Specialize in educational research, with a strong focus on research methodology and statistics. As a Supervisor, I have guided several Postgraduate and Ph. D. scholars in their thesis work, helping them navigate the research process with clarity and confidence. I teach research methodology and statistics to both bachelor's and Master's students, ensuring a connected and practical approach to learning. My aim is to make complex concepts accessible and meaningful by linking theory with real-world applications. Through this integrated method, I strive to develop students's analytical skills and promote a deeper understanding of systematic and evidence-based academic research.
