Brief Report:

Ayurveda is a holistic science of our country which has now got global recognition and identity specifically after Covid-19 Pandemic. This science has shouldered the responsibility of improving and maintaining the immunity of the people worldwide. Many Ayurveda formulations have proved their efficacy in fighting the fatal microorganism during this tough time. The global acceptance of Ayurveda irrespective of pathy was a matter of pride for all Ayurveda followers.

So to pay gratitude towards Ayurveda and to get blessings of Lord Dhanwantari, National Ayurveda Day was celebrated in the institute.

In the morning, Dhanwantari hawan was organized in the college premises in which all Teaching Staff, consultants and students were participated to have blessings from Lord Dhanwantari.

Respected Dr. Ashok Kumar Warshney, Rashtriya Sanghatan Sachiv, Arogya Bharti graced this occasion as "Chief Guest". The program started with felicitation of the guests followed by Dhanwantari Poojan and chanting Dhanwantari stawan with lamp lightening. Prof. Vijay k. Agarwal presented the theme of the Occasion. In his welcome address, he shared objectives of celebrating National Ayurveda Day. Dr. Sunil Kapoor, Chairman RKDF group, gave his inputs and experiences regarding Ayurveda treatment in India and overseas. Dr. Sadhana Kapoor, Chancellor, RKDF University, in her presidential speech urged all people to make Ayurveda their new way of lifestyle. Dr. Sanjay Gupta, Secretary, National Commission for Homeopathy underlined significance of collaborative and inter-pathy research aiming overall health of the community.

As a part of shishyopanayan sanskar, our chief guest welcomed our students in traditional way. Dr. Ashok Kumar Warshney in his speech expressed his thoughts about what measures can be followed to make Ayurveda as people's movement. He also threw light on attempts of GoI and Mo AYUSH to foster and reinforce Ayurveda's infiltration in the common public.

Finally, Dr. Narendra Lariya, Registrar, RKDF University gave vote of thanks. The programme ended with national anthem.

To conclude the occasion, medicinal herbs plantation was carried out by the auspicious hands of chief guest and all other honourable dignitaries in Herbal garden of the institute. Also, our chief guests visited to different research projects in the university campus
