RKDF UNIVERSITY

(ESTABLISHED BY AN ACT OF GOVT. OF M.P. AND APPROVED BY UGC UNDER SECTION 2(F) OF 1956)

1.3.1: Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability.

Report on Gender Equity

1.3.1 Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability.

The university is having a coeducational environment with both male and female students, understanding that it is demanding to bring equality between men and women to produce courageous women who can play an extraordinary role in changing society. The institute imparts quality education to develop women leaders and professionals academically and technically competent with strong professional ethics. The Institution maintains a healthy environment and takes the necessary initiatives for the growth and development of its students. There are various committees in the institution to maintain peace and harmony among the students. University has a gender sensitivity committee such as Women Grievance Cell, Anti Ragging Committee, and Students Grievance Cell, Internal complaints Committee which are constituted as per norms laid by the UGC. The functions of the committees are displayed on the website of the University, and information is given to students under orientation and induction programs. Various administrative committees that are being formed in the university have female representative to ensure welfare of female stock holder. Awareness programs are organized on the importance of Human Rights. Women related Issues and Challenges, Rights of Women, Entrepreneurship Development Programmes, Awareness Programmes on various government schemes and International Women's Day Celebrations.

The University is proactive in fostering a gender sensitive, gender equal and safe environment for all the students faculty and employees. University rules and regulations mandate establishment of systems in each Faculty/Department to ensure strict compliance with laws related to gender equality, ragging, discriminatory behaviour and harassment.

University shows gender sensitivity by providing following facilities for students & faculty

1. Safety and Security
2. Counselling
3. Common Room
4. Daycare Facility

1. Safety and Security

A total of 146 CCTV cameras and 14 online cameras are fitted all over the University campus and inside the individual constituent college buildings. The control for these cameras are situated in the University administrative block. Complaint box is also placed in every individual constituent college building, as is regularly opened by the competent authority of Institute. If some complaints are received immediate action is taken.

The campus has a 24 x 7 security system and enforcement of discipline and student safety is under direct purview of Chief Administrative officer, which coordinates with law enforcement agencies and security agencies. Entry into the campus and Departments is restricted and allowed after proper verification through a two-tier security system..

4. Day Care Facility

A well-furnished daycare facility is available for small children for the parents who need to keep their wards in the facility while working in the University. The facility has sensitive, trained caregiver equipped with creative, fun, and clean play areas. This facility is free for all the staff of the University. The Cell seeks to achieve these goals through:

- Dissemination of Information – Through production, distribution and circulation of printed materials, posters and handouts
- Awareness Workshops – About sexual harassment for faculty, non-teaching staff and students. The aim is to develop nonthreatening and non-intimidating atmosphere of mutual learning.
- Counselling – Confidential counselling service is an important service as it provides a safe space to speak about the incident and how it has affected the victim because sexual harassment cases are rarely reported and is a sensitive issue.
- Guest/Extension Lectures- The lectures of eminent personalities from NGOs, civil authorities, academicians and experts working in the area.

International Women's Day 2019

- Entrepreneurship program for females
- Parental involvement and academic achievement-A gender-based case study

Dr. Swati Asha shared her life experience with students are inspired them about how to face walkthroughs in life and come back to the game with new hope and enthusiasm. Dr. Asha is associated with NGOs working for entrepreneurship development targeting backward class women. Her NGO is providing working opportunities for the women's in semiurban areas to earn a respectable amount and run their household comfortably.

Dr. Papiya Bigoniya, Principal, DSKM College of Pharmacy, RKDF University addressed the students on the issue of parental involvement and academic achievement. She encouraged the students that parents always think about the betterment of their wards and their involvement if the academic issues should not be regarded as an intrusion to personal, but they must see it as their love and affection for the children.

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

RKDF University has celebrated the International Women's Day on 8th March 2019, under the guidance of Vice Chancellor. Dr.V.K. Sethi sir, Registrar Dr. B.N.Singh sir and Director and Exam Controller Dr.Sunil Patil sir, in which more than 200 girls and female teaching and non-teaching staff participated with enthusiasm. Mrs Ruchi Kapoor (social activist) was the Chief Guest. Ms. Swati Asha (NGO worker) and Dr Rajni Chatterji (Psychaitrist) were grace the event as Guest of Honour. This is a commemoration event under the theme #BalanceforBetter.

As per Indian tradition the event started by lighting the lamp in front of Maa Saraswati which was followed by a Saraswati Vandana performed by few girls of Agriculture. After the saraswati vadana, celebration was started by wonderful dance performances by the Agriculture dept. girls' students. Our Vice Chancellor has given the speech which boost up the moral of the girls students. Then after, a very thoughtful Skit was presented by the students of Agriculture Dept which was the Tribute to PULWAMA Soldiers who were died in attack. It was wonderfully performed and dressing was planned according to the theme. The drama was very sensitive for the audience. After this, Speech was given by our guest of honour which, undoubtedly motivate our students and staff. The laughter dosages were given to audience by some students of Arts with the help of games. Their interactions with audience made the event live. Solo song and group dance were presented by girls students. Ramp walk in Traditional and Ratro outfit has been done by students of different departments.

Entire Team of WGC was engaged to make this event a big success with great enthusiasm, hard work and zeal. They went beyond their comfort zone and made it a grand success. Refreshment was distributed among all.

As we celebrated this momentous occasion, each of us carried good memories.
