

Ram Krishna College of Homoeopathy and Medical Sciences

Value-Added Course

Preparation of Homoeopathic Potencies

- [1] what is potency ,how to make potency?
- [2] what is the role of potency in dynamisation?
- [3] How will you prepare potency from a trituration?
- [4] How will you prepare potency from the succussion?
- [5] Preparation of potency (liquid potencies and solid potencies)under the scale.
- [6] Relation between decimal and centesimal scale of potency.
- [7] Principle of potency in different scales.
- [8] Relation between decimal and centesimal scale of potency.
- [9] History of preparation of 50- Millesimal scale of potency.
- [10] How Hahnemann arrived at the concept of 50- Millesimal potency?
- [11] Designation of different potency
- [12] Preparation of 50- Millesimal potency .
- [13] Preparation of centesimal potencies.
- [14] Preparation of decimal Potencies .
- [15] Conversion of trituration into liquid potency.
- [16] why 3c soluble in water and alcohol?
- [17] Medicament a la goutte[preparation of centesimal potencies].
- [18] Medicament au globule [preparation of 50- Millesimal potencies]
- [19] Advantage and special characteristics of 50- Millesimal potencies over centesimal potencies and decimals potencies.
- [20] Disadvantage of 50-millesimal scale of potency.

- [21] Difference between potency and dilution.
- [22] what is fluxion potency ,High fluxion potencies.
- [23] Different author view about potency like carrol Dunhuam, Thomas skinner, Koraskoff of Russia .
- [24] Role of Avogadro's number in 12c.
- [25] Describe back potency.
- [26] Describe straight potency.
- [27] Potency relation with aphorism 270 in the 6th edition .
- [28] Drug power role –in preparation of potency
- [29] Justify why homoeopathy medicine are potentised [potency] and not diluted.
- [30] How will you convert Carbo veg 6x into next centesimal scale.

